

PUBLIC HEALTH INSURANCE OPTIONS FOR CHILDREN – POST CHIPRA

U.S. Citizens Qualified aliens Protected aliens	Special Status children (Those who have had their green card for less than 5 years)	PRUCOL children (Persons residing under color of law)	Undocumented children
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children with household income up to 300% FPL are eligible for MassHealth Standard. • Children with household income between 301%-400% FPL are eligible for Children’s Medical Security Plan (CMSP) with Partial HSN Secondary coverage. • Children with household income above 400% FPL are only eligible for CMSP. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children with household income up to 150% FPL are eligible for MassHealth Standard. • Children with household income between 150%-300% FPL are eligible for MassHealth Family Assistance. • Children with household income between 301%- 400% FPL are eligible for CMSP with Partial HSN Secondary coverage. • Children with household income above 400% FPL are only eligible for CMSP. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children with household income up to 200% FPL are eligible for MassHealth Family Assistance. • Children with household income between 201%-400% FPL are eligible for CMSP with Partial HSN Secondary coverage. • Children with household income above 400% FPL are only eligible for CMSP. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children with household income up to 150% FPL are eligible for MassHealth Limited plus CMSP and Full HSN Secondary coverage. • Children with household income between 151%-400% FPL are eligible for CMSP with HSN Secondary coverage (Full HSN if income up to 200% FPL; Partial HSN if income between 201%-400% FPL) • Children with household income above 400% FPL are only eligible for CMSP.