TeamAid

Team Aid volunteers and funds from the public and business donors. If you feel inclined to do so, make your monetary contribution today.

Oftentimes, tragedy strikes while traveling or living abroad. People find themselves alone and their families are unprepared to help them in a foreign country. The lack of emotional and practical support only worsens an already terrible situation. This often contributes to further mental trauma and stress.

Team Aid's vast network of local coordinators is always available to provide emotional support and a helping hand.

Team Aid is the only organization in the world exclusively incorporated to assist people in crisis situations while traveling or living abroad. We strive to be the main point of contact for family and friends who are experiencing issues such as trauma, loss of a loved one, or grief in a foreign country, far from home. We are a 501(c)(3), non-profit organization with an extensive volunteer's network.

OUR MISSION

Team Aid is a volunteer-based non-profit, global organization. We assist people living or traveling abroad that find themselves in traumatic situations or crises such as accidents, homicides, sudden deaths, disasters etc. Our compassionate volunteer coordinators care and console said victims and/or their families during these difficult times.

Team Aid embraces our global community. We strive to provide emotional and practical support to our fellow community members in dire emergency situations. We expect nothing in return. All we can hope for is making a terrible situation bearable.

BECOME A VOLUNTEER

Your time and support certainly make a big difference in the lives of those experiencing crisis situations that is why we welcome you to become a Team Aid volunteer.
